

Always My Own: A Small Town Georgia Romance: The Always Love Trilogy, Book #2 (Small Town Georgia Romances 6)

***This is the rest of the story ... what happened to Trent and Elizabeth after Underneath My Christmas Tree ended. ***Come back to Burton! If you fell in love with this small Georgia town in The One Trilogy, you'll want to return to see what's new.

***~*~*~When Elizabeth Hudson and Trent Wagoner met on a Christmas tree lot in Florida, sparks flew, igniting a fire they both thought would burn for a long time. The problem with fires is that sometimes people get hurt. In this case, both Elizabeth and Trent end up burnt when an impulsive decision results in long-term repercussions. Trent, still dealing with the aftermath of a painful situation in his hometown of Burton, struggles with the feelings he has for Elizabeth. He's not sure that committing to her is a good idea when everything he touches seems to end badly. Elizabeth took a risk when she moved to Burton for Trent. Now she's stuck in a job she's not sure she likes, living with people she doesn't know, in love with a man who may not be capable of the forever she craves. When it seems as if hope has died ... there's always love.
