In the land of Zerus, a strange ailment is slowly wiping out the Ceyan race. Willing to do anything to save their people, King Rohman and his brothers seek out the Ancient Ones to obtain the whereabouts of the last remaining TheRans, a people known for their healing powers. To their astonishment, the last remaining TheRans are on a planet called Earth -- and have no knowledge of their legacy. Now four very different women face the same challenge -- kidnapped by winged warriors, taken to a strange planet, they must come to terms with their unknown powers, save the Ceyan people, and conquer the hearts of their mates. This collection contains the previously released Descendants of the Light novellas Ravens Calling, Genesis, Hopes Heart, and Finding Eden.
