

Dialogues Concerning Natural Religion (Classic Philosophical Work)

Dialogues Concerning Natural Religion is a classic philosophical work written by author and Scottish philosopher David Hume. Largely a dialogue between three fictional characters (Demea, Philo and Cleanthes), the nature of the existence of God is their main issue of debate. Although all three agree that God exists, their views differ sharply on God's nature and the attributes, of how, humankind can gain the knowledge of a deity. Dialogues Concerning Natural Religion is highly recommended for those who enjoy the writings of David Hume and also for individuals interested in the debate of the nature of God's existence.
