

Wisdom for the BusyLeader

In the year 2000 Pat Richie began sending a weekly email devotion to 30 NFL coaches and administrators called Wisdom for the Busy SportsLeader. Each could be read in about 20 seconds. By the end of the year about 500 people from all walks of life asked to be included on the mailing list. Eventually people requested that the devotions be compiled into a book. This book is the result of those requests. Wisdom for BusyLeaders has been somewhat re-written to apply to a broader audience, although you will read much that comes from sports. Mike Holmgren says, This book is 250 devotions, full of interesting quotes, practical wisdom, and most importantly verses from Gods Word. I try to take a few minutes each day to read this devotion and make a commitment to improve an area of my life or learn an important lesson I want to remember. Pat Richie is a speaker and consultant in the areas of teamwork and leadership to Fortune 500 companies, professional and college sports organizations, and government agencies. From 1981-1998 he served as team chaplain of the San Francisco Forty-Niners. Three times he was awarded Super Bowl Rings for his contributions to the team. In 1990 he was inspired to encourage NFL players to pray on the 50-yard line at the conclusion of the game. This prayer has become a tradition across football and today every NFL, major college, and many high school games end in prayer between opponents. Pat now works with CEOs and executive teams building cohesion, leadership and organizational clarity to drive results, and create a more enjoyable, productive work environment. He also leads strategic discussions for companies in many fields. More information on Pat Richies work can be found at: www.slgcorporate.com Pat can be reached at: pat@slgcorporate.com
