

Nam Sense: Surviving Vietnam with the 101st Airborne Division

An honest tour of the Vietnam War from the soldier's eye view ... Nam-Sense is the brilliantly written story of a combat squad leader in the 101st Airborne Division. Arthur Wiknik was a 19-year-old kid from New England when he was drafted into the U.S. Army in 1968. After completing various NCO training programs, he was promoted to sergeant without ever setting foot in a combat zone and sent to Vietnam in early 1969. Shortly after his arrival on the far side of the world, Wiknik was assigned to Camp Evans, a mixed-unit base camp near the northern village of Phong Dien, only thirty miles from Laos and North Vietnam. On his first jungle patrol, his squad killed a female Viet Cong who turned out to have been the local prostitute. It was the first dead person he had ever seen. Wiknik's account of life and death in Vietnam includes everything from heavy combat to faking insanity to get some R & R. He was the first man in his unit to reach the top of Hamburger Hill during one of the last offensives launched by U.S. forces, and later discovered a weapons cache that prevented an attack on his advance fire support base. Between the sporadic episodes of combat he mingled with the locals, tricked unwitting U.S. suppliers into providing his platoon with a year of hard to get food, defied a superior and was punished with a dangerous mission, and struggled with himself and his fellow soldiers as the anti-war movement began to affect his ability to wage victorious war. Nam-Sense offers a perfect blend of candor, sarcasm, and humor - and it spares nothing and no one in its attempt to accurately convey what really transpired for the combat soldier during this unpopular war. Nam-Sense is not about heroism or glory, mental breakdowns, haunting flashbacks, or wallowing in self-pity. The GIs Wiknik lived and fought with during his yearlong tour did not rape, murder, or burn villages, were not strung out on drugs, and did not enjoy killing. They were there to do their duty as they were trained, support their comrades - and get home alive. The soldiers I knew, explains the author, demonstrated courage, principle, kindness, and friendship, all the elements found in other wars Americans have proudly fought in. Wiknik has produced a gripping and complete record of life and death in Vietnam, and he has done so with a style and flair few others will ever achieve. REVIEWS Namsense is an honest and realistic account of not only the authors tour of duty but the tours of other Vietnam soldiers as well. I feel honored to have Arthur as an occasional guest on my radio show and my listeners are all the better for it. Lee Elci WXML New London, CT As a member of Sergeant Wikniks squad, I found Namsense to be an authentic and absorbing narrative that resonates with every combat GIs story of survival in Vietnam. Howard Siner, Staten Island Advancethe best, most accurate portrayal of the life of an Infantryman in Vietnam A family member, girlfriend, or fiancée of a soldier who went to Vietnam will find this book most illuminating. For all the rest of you, if you read only one book about a soldiers life in Vietnam, read NamSense! Col. Gene Sherron, 11/2/2010 provides an unflinching look at a year in the life of a grunt on Vietnam Military History of the West, Volume 40, 2010

Buy Nam-Sense: Surviving Vietnam with the 101st Airborne Division Reprint by Arthur Wiknik (ISBN: 9781612006529) from Amazons Book Store. Everyday low This is the story of my experiences as a combat squad leader in the Vietnam War. I was drafted into the Army in 1968 and selected to be trained as an NCO. Nam-Sense is the brilliantly written story of a combat squad leader in the 101st Airborne Division. Arthur Wiknik was a 19-year-old kid from New England when An honest tour of the Vietnam War from the soldiers eye view Nam-Sense is the brilliantly written story of a combat squad leader in the 101st Airborne Division. Find helpful customer reviews and review ratings for Nam Sense: Surviving Vietnam with the 101st Airborne Division at . Read honest and An honest tour of the Vietnam War from the soldiers eye view . . . Nam-Sense is the brilliantly written story of a combat squad leader in the 101st Airborne An honest tour of the Vietnam War from the soldiers eye view . . . Nam-Sense is the brilliantly written story of a combat squad leader in the Nam-Sense is the brilliantly written story of a combat squad leader in the 101st Airborne Division. Arthur Wiknik was a 19-year-old kid from New England when Nam-Sense is the brilliantly written story of a combat squad leader in the 101st Airborne Division. Arthur Wiknik was a 19-year-old kid from New England when NAM SENSE : SURVIVING VIETNAM WITH THE 101ST AIRBORNE DIVISION by Wiknik, Jr., Arthur and a great selection of similar Used, New and CollectibleBuy Nam Sense: Surviving Vietnam with 101st Airborne Division by Arthur Wiknik Jr. (ISBN: 9781935149095) from Amazons Book Store. Everyday low pricesNam-Sense is the brilliantly written story of a combat squad leader in the 101st Airborne Division. Arthur Wiknik was a 19-year-old kid from New England whenAn honest tour of the Vietnam War from the soldiers eye view Nam-Sense is the brilliantly written story of a combat squad leader in the 101st Airborne Division. The Paperback of the Nam Sense: Surviving Vietnam with the 101st Airborne Division by Arthur Wiknik at Barnes & Noble. FREE Shipping onAn honest tour of the Vietnam War from the soldiers eye view . . . Nam-Sense is the brilliantly written story of a combat squad leader in the 101st AirborneAmazon?????Nam Sense: Surviving Vietnam With the 101st Airborne Division????????Amazon?????????????Arthur Wiknik??